Access Business Awards 2026
Terms & Conditions

1. Applications to enter the Access Self Storage Business Awards 2026 will be accepted between Monday 26th October – Sunday 1st November 2026.

2. Entry forms will not be accepted either before or after these dates.

3. Entries must be submitted through our online application form.

4. The Business Awards are open to any companies currently using our storage or office facilities.

5. The copyright to all material assembled for the Awards will remain with Access Self Storage and may be used for the purpose of publicising the Awards within the national, regional and trade press where appropriate.

6. By entering this competition, all entrants agree for their submission details to be publicised within the national, regional and trade press where appropriate. All winners must be prepared to take part in all publicity related to the competition.

7. Finalists will be required to be photographed or filmed for a social media video at their business premises.

8. The judging panel's decision is final. The judges reserve the right to withdraw or transfer any of the Awards at their absolute discretion.

9. The prize is non-negotiable and non-refundable and there are no cash alternatives.

10. Use of inaccurate or false information in entries to the competition is strictly prohibited. Access Self Storage reserves the right to disqualify from the competition any entrants found to have provided inaccurate or false information.

11. By entering the competition, entrants agree to be bound by these terms and conditions.

12. Any data Access Self Storage receives from entrants to the Access Self Storage Business Awards 2026 will be held in accordance with Access's privacy policy.

13. Access Self Storage will keep your data securely to prevent unauthorised access by third parties.

14. Access Self Storage reserves the right to withdraw this programme at any time.
